

Overview

We start with a new topic – Anglo-Saxon England and how it was taken over by the Normans in 1066. We then go on to look at changes and developments in law and order in Britain since 1066

Year 11 History

Term 3

This term, we continue to look at the development of law and order in Britain, by our focus moves to Whitechapel in London. How and why did the police fail to catch Jack the Ripper? What issues made crime a serious problem in Whitechapel?

Term 1

Our new unit takes us back to knowledge you first gained in Year 7 – what was Anglo-Saxon Britain like and how did the Normans take it over and control it with just 5000 men?

Term 2

We start our new term with a new topic – Crime and Punishment in Britain between c1000 and the present day. Who made the laws? How were criminals caught and brought to justice? And how were criminals punished?

